| (2) Magadi. | (4) Nelamangala | (6) Doddballapur | (8) Channapatna | (10) Hoskote |

2. The auction will commence at 2 P.M. on the day of sale, and, if the sale is not completed on the same day, it will be continued on the next following day at the same hour.

3. The exclusive privilege above described will be disposed of to the highest bidder, but the sale will be subject to the confirmation of the Deputy Commissioner, who reserves to himself the right to accept or reject any bid without assigning any reason therefor.

4. Parties intending to bid must attend either in person or by duly accredited agents, and no person will be permitted to bid either on his own behalf or on account of any one else, unless he deposits a sum of Rs. 100. The deposits made by the unsuccessful bidders will be returned at the close of sale. The successful bidder shall, within five days after the confirmation of the sale is intimated to him, pay into the Bangalore District Treasury one-fourth of the total rental including the deposit already made. Should he fail to do so, the deposit will be forfeited and the exclusive privilege will be re-sold by the officers conducting the sale.

5. Re-sale effected under the above para will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder, who will forfeit all gain, and, in the event of a loss by such re-sale, shall make good the deficiency between the total amount payable by him for the whole period under the terms of the original sale and the total amount payable by the successful bidder at the re-sale.

6. The lessee shall sign an agreement and also deposit Rs. 100 towards security, binding himself to observe the conditions below, which should be executed within seven days from the date on which the confirmation of the sale may be intimated to him. In default he will forfeit the deposit and the right will be re-sold.

The balance of the lease amount and local cess at one anna in the rupee on the whole sum shall be payable in eight equal khists as follows:—

1st khist on 1st August 1909, 2nd khist on 1st October 1909, and 3rd khist on 2nd January 1910, 4th khist on 1st April 1910, 5th khist on 1st July 1910, 6th khist on 1st October 1910, 7th khist on 2nd January 1911, and 8th khist on 1st April 1911.

In the event of any khist not being so paid, all collection and removal of the barks will be stopped, and the whole of the balance of lease amount will become payable at once, and be recovered as a revenue demand, in addition to forfeiture on the lease.

Conditions.

- (1) No stem or shoot under one year old to be cut or barked.
- (2) To hold himself responsible to prevent the felling of tender stems by his servants or sub-contractors.
- (3) To furnish a list of sub-contractors and mestris who may be appointed for the collection of bark in the different working circles, and of the places where the produce will be kept stored before removal from each working circle.
- (4) The barked wood to be the property of the lessee.
- (5) Not to enter any State Forest for collecting bark without the written permission of the Range Officer and Forester in charge of such forest.

(6) Not to collect bark in such portions of State Forests as are closed against the public on account of planting, reproduction or other forest operations.

(7) To keep accounts showing the quantity of the bark removed in accordance with the lease and to permit inspection of such accounts by the Deputy Commissioner or the District Forest Officer or any other officer deputed by either of them.

(8) To provide passes for each cart-load of bark in such manner as may be laid down by the District Forest Officer.

(9) To remove out of the limits of the Bangalore District, and before 15th July 1911, all bark cut, collected and stored in the several kotis of the district as well as railway stations.

(10) In the event of breach of any of the above conditions, the lease is liable to be cancelled, all the bark collected and stored up to date to be confiscated and the whole of the lease amount paid by the contractor or such portion thereof as may be decided by the Deputy Commissioner to be forfeited to Government.
